Ms. Diaz,

Just wanted to let you know that my missing the deposition the other day was completely inadvertent and that I fully intended to participate. I had cleared my schedule and mentioned to multiple parties that I was going to a deposition on the 4th because that was my understanding. I am dealing with multiple personal issues including a home under contract, my own legal battles, running multiple businesses, and a recent death in the family. I simply got turned around on the dates. I remain willing to be deposed by whatever reasonable means that is available. Whether by phone or other electronic means or, of course, in person.

Respectfully,

Rob Hall
